Red Cross Leader Going to Albany to Urge Passage of a Boxing Bill.

Copyright, 1919, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World.)

One of the boxing bills now being introduced at Albany for passage by the State Legislature becomes a law the Boxers' Loyalty League will be indirectly responsible, as through the tireless efforts of this organization two wounded soldier boys, principally, have enjoyed shows almost nightly since the war ended.

So praiseworthy has been the work of the boxers hereabouts that Major Adrian Gillette, who is in charge of the Eastern Division of the Red Cross, is going to take several of his captains along with him next week for the purpose of going to Albany and urging Gov. Smith to recommend the immediate passing of a State boxing law.

Major Gillette has thirty hospitals under his supervision, and since hostilities ceased the Boxers' Loyalty League has staged shows that have entertained 60,000 wounded heroes. There are 90,000 more wounded and convalescents due back, and the Boxers' Loyalty League is going to see that these men also are amused.

It was Dan Morgan that conceived the idea of a Boxers' Loyalty League, and his enthusiasm about the cause is so great that it has spread to most of the other managers and fighters, with the result that practically every boxer hereabouts devotes all or part of his time to entertaining the men who risked their lives for their country.

Every night the league puts on shows somewhere or other. All expenses are paid by the boxers themselves. Frequently it is necessary to feed a large number of men, especially when shows are put on at such out-of-the-way places as Fox Hills, Staten Island.

Not only are the boxers and promoters obliged to pay their own expenses, but they are obliged to box harder, or just as hard, as they would if they were getting money for their work.

So unselfish is the work of the members of the league that Major Gillette never stops praising them. He is one of the sport's staunchest supporters, and for that reason he intends to go to Albany next week and impress on Gov. Smith the importance to the Nation of having unhampered boxing.

It is said that 90 per cent. of the men that are discharged from the army and navy know how to box. Everybody that has indulged in Government training is strong for the manly art.

MAJOR GEN. LEONARD A. WOOD, according to a report from Chicago, says that the statement that he is going to head the Army, Navy and Civilian Boxing Board of Control is premature. He admits that he has been offered the position, but that he hasn't yet made up his mind whether to accept. Here's what the Major says:

"It will only be if the sport is limited strictly to amateur bouts. Under no consideration will I have anything to do with any movement if professionalism is connected with it. There must be no money in the sport. My understanding is that the movement will seek to govern ring sports like the lawn tennis authorities rule their game. If they want to make boxing a gentleman's game, I am with it wholeheartedly. My wish is to see the sport conducted as they do in England, where the sport is beyond suspicion."

The constitution of the new boxing board has been in my possession for several days, most of which time has been spent by me in traveling around my department, and, truthfully, I have not had time to master its contents. I expect to be in New York next week, and the week following, and will make my decision then."

FROM here it looks as though the International Olympic meet will be revived next year, and it will probably be held at Rome. Baron Pierre de Coubertin, who for twenty-five years has been the President of the International Olympic Committee, announces that he has written to the Italian Olympic Committee suggesting that the 1920 games be held at Italy's capital. M. Monti, an Italian deputy, has called a meeting of representatives of sporting organizations to discuss the advisability of conducting the classic and also to ask the Government for financial support.

For a time it was thought that the next Olympic would be held in this country. A strong movement was started to bring about the holding of the games here, but the action of the Baron in suggesting Rome as the scene of the big meet is regarded as equivalent to settling the matter.

CONTRARY to expectations, Tex Rickard, the man who is going to promote the Willard-Dempsey fight for the heavyweight championship of the world, won't arrive in this city till next week. Gary, Ind., which is quite handy to Chicago, is the latest place to bid for the big scrap.

THE Army-Navy football game next fall will be held at the Polo Grounds Nov. 29. This assures the Metropolitan of another big sporting attraction for this year.

He is a lineal descendant of John Paul Jones of Revolutionary War fame.

Two contracts, duly signed, dropped in at the Yankee headquarters yesterday. The latter is still working in Jersey City and had a conference with Miller Huggins in Chicago. Huggins is enthusiastic over Quinn.

"If he pitches for me as he did for Comiskey last July and August, he will make a heap of difference for the Yankees."

Evidently the Yankee management hopes to get a former hold on the Polo Grounds. "Cap" at the Giant headquarters with John McEwain at the Giant headquarters and arranged for a new lease on the big lot.

It is understood that the Yankees want a long-term lease on the grounds instead of a year-to-year agreement, which is in vogue at present. "Matty" was at the "big shop" yesterday, but talked naught of baseball. The former pitcher, who has been confined himself to spinning war yarns.
